

JEB SPAULDING

Jeb Spaulding began his tenure as Chancellor of the Vermont State Colleges in January 2015. The Vermont State Colleges comprise Castleton University, Community College of Vermont, Northern Vermont University – Johnson and Lyndon, and Vermont Technical College, enrolling approximately 12,000 students and employing over 2,00 staff and faculty in 26 locations throughout Vermont. He previously served as Secretary of the Vermont Agency of Administration under Governor Peter Shumlin from 2011 through 2014. Prior to this appointment, Spaulding served as the Vermont State Treasurer from 2003 to 2010, and as a State Senator from 1985 to 2000. He was a founder and general manager of WNCS-FM, now The Point, and was a partner of Precision Media.